

Residency Requirements

Castleberry ISD accepts no transfer students due to current population size and availability of classroom space. Only students meeting legal residency requirements will be allowed to attend. To attend Castleberry ISD, the student and a parent or legal guardian must reside in the District at the time of application for admission, and there after, or the student must be homeless as defined by federal law. The District requires proof of residency prior to admission.